

Diagram of an Air Cooled Installation

Ducted air cooling creates the highest efficiency and allows installation in confined areas such as a sail locker, or under a cabinet or seat. The ducting eliminates recirculation of the cooling air. The air temperature increase is minimal (2° to 3° F.). Air flow can be reversed.